

Chrysler Canada: The Chrysler Foundation Honours the Late Minister of Finance, Jim Flaherty, With Donation to Special Olympics Canada

August 26, 2014, Windsor, Ontario - Special Olympics Canada is thrilled to accept a $25,000 donation from The Chrysler Foundation in honour of the late Jim Flaherty. Minister Flaherty, a passionate advocate for the Special Olympics movement, was also instrumental in leading the Canadian automotive industry through difficult financial times. The Chrysler Foundation would like to honour Minister Flaherty's memory and his leadership by supporting Special Olympics Canada. The donation will provide funding for Special Olympics Team Canada and the educational components of its training programs in the lead up to the 2015 Special Olympics World Summer Games in Los Angeles, California, to be held July 25 – August 2. Special Olympics Canada is honoured to receive this donation from The Chrysler Foundation in Minister Flaherty's memory, ensuring his legacy of championing those with intellectual disabilities lives on.

About The Chrysler Foundation

The Chrysler Foundation, the charitable arm of Chrysler Group LLC, has established a proud legacy of empowering people and investing in local communities. The Chrysler Foundation focuses its support on four key areas: Education: K-12 and post-secondary education initiatives that encourage the study and pursuit of careers in business, design, science, technology, engineering, mathematics or supply-chain management; Military: support for the nation's service members and their families in need; Multicultural / Diversity: initiatives that promote inclusion and advancement opportunities for diverse populations; and Youth Development: organizations and programs that provide mentoring and related assistance to aid youth in the transition to adulthood.

Since its inception in 1953, The Chrysler Foundation has awarded more than $500 million in charitable grants.

-###-

Additional information and news from Stellantis are available at: <https://media.stellantisnorthamerica.com>